Identifying Resources to Help Your Community Fight Gun Violence with ShotSpotter®.

If you want to bring ShotSpotter into your community, don't let funding be a stumbling block. ShotSpotter can help you access the funds you need.

Local community and police foundations, corporate leaders, health care providers, asset forfeiture funds, and state and local grants can be combined with federal funding to establish and expand ShotSpotter in your community.

Let us help you get creative and enlist local partners to compete for and bring in funding from multiple federal agencies:

- Department of Justice
- Department of Homeland Security
- Department of Housing and Urban Development

Our funding consultant will provide your agency with a free review of all available grants and work with you to make the process as easy and successful as possible:

- Consult a Professional
Allow us to review your grant applications, provide strategic advice and recommend changes based on our internal knowledge of the Federal agency's priorities.
- Enlist Congressional Support
Secure support letters and calls for your grant application.
- Ensure Speedy Disbursement
Once awarded, we can work with Federal agencies to expedite the drawdown of your awarded funds.
- Use It, Don't Lose It
Request reprogramming of already awarded funding so that it may be used for another purchase.
